Shawn S. Hakakian, Esq.

Founder & Managing Attorney

Shawn S. Hakakian is the founder and principal attorney of Hakakian Law Group, PC. He specializes in personal injury matters. Shawn has an established track record in personal injury litigation, having recovered millions of dollars in settlements on behalf of his clients. Shawn advocates fiercely on behalf of his clients to ensure that they receive maximum compensation and are made whole from the injuries they've sustained. Whether the matter is big or small, Shawn ensures that his clients are treated like family and prioritizes their recovery - giving personal attention to every single case.

Shawn S. Hakakian

Shawn received his undergraduate degree from the University of California, San Diego. He then received his Juris Doctorate at the Ivy League University of Pennsylvania Law School. While there, Shawn received a certificate in Business Management at the country's top-ranked business institution, the Wharton School. Shawn then began his career working at the prestigious global law firm, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP, where he worked on complex multimillion dollar transactions in a high-pressure and fast-paced environment. Shawn's educational background and experience have allowed him to thrive in personal injury matters, as he is a seasoned and aggressive negotiator. This enables Shawn to go head-to-head with insurance companies on the highest-stakes matters - matters involving the injuries of individuals and their loved ones.

As the son of an immigrant, Shawn experienced first-hand how consumers without adequate legal representation are taken advantage of. As your personal injury attorney, Shawn approaches your case with empathy and transparency to ensure that you receive dedicated legal representation and care of the highest quality.
